Welcome to Fair Work Convention News

Where fair work drives success, wellbeing and prosperity for individuals, businesses, organisations and for society for the people of Scotland.

Hello and welcome to the first edition of 'Fair Work Convention News'. This quarterly newsletter will help round up all the Convention's latest news and updates so we hope will you find it helpful.

Read our recommendations from the Fair Work in Scotland report, find out how our support tools can help you and your employer self-assess working practices against the dimensions of fair work. In this packed first edition we call on all political parties to put Fair Work first in our 'Manifesto for Scotland' and issue important findings from our latest COVID-19 workers' survey. Also read guest blogs from Derek Feeley and Jim McCormick.

FAIR WORK IN SCOTLAND REPORT

Fair Work in Scotland

Fair Work Convention
December 2020

Scotland's Fair Work Convention has urged a greater commitment by government, employers and trade unions to implementing and progressing fair work if Scotland is to achieve its ambition of being a Fair Work Nation by 2025. The report reveals that that disabled workers, ethnic minorities, women and young workers often experience poorer work outcomes and are often more heavily concentrated in precarious and low paid work...

EMPLOYEE AND EMPLOYER SUPPORT TOOLS NOW AVAILABLE

Two new fair work resources are now available to support the adoption of fair working practices in Scotland. The Fair Work Employers' tool will help businesses to assess their policies and practices against the five fair work dimensions. This together with our Fair Work Self-Assessment tool are very useful resources in helping both employers' and employees assess where they are on their fair work journey and make practical changes which embed fair work in their workplace...Read More

FAIR WORK CONVENTION MANIFESTO FOR SCOTLAND

Urgent action is needed or Scotland will miss its target of becoming a leading Fair Work Nation by 2025. The Fair Work Convention has published its 'Fair Work Manifesto for Scotland' urging all political parties to commit to delivering the national ambition of becoming a Fair Work Nation by 2025. We are calling for all parties to put fair work at the heart of their manifestos and propose some urgent steps needed to make fair work a reality by the end of the next Parliament.... Read more

WORKERS' EXPERIENCES THROUGH COVID-19 SURVEY FINDINGS

Scotland's Fair Work Convention has published findings from their Fair Work in Scotland: Workers' Experiences through COVID-19 Survey. The survey has revealed a mixed picture on fairness at work, access to sick-pay and support for carers during the pandemic...Read more
