

FAIR WORK CONVENTION NEWS

The latest news and updates from Scotland's Fair Work Convention

IN THIS ISSUE

FAIR WORK AND THE RIGHT TO DISCONNECT

RIISING TO THE CHALLENGE: A JUST TRANSITION AND FAIR WORK

RENEWED FAIR WORK CONVENTION TO MEET KEY CHALLENGES AHEAD

SCOTTISH GOVERNMENT FAIR WORK NATION CONSULTATION

GUEST BLOGS

Welcome to Fair Work Convention News

Where fair work drives success, wellbeing and prosperity for individuals, businesses, organisations and for society for the people of Scotland.

Hello and welcome to the third edition of 'Fair Work Convention News'. This quarterly newsletter is a round up all the Convention's latest news and updates, we hope will you find it helpful.

Read about our support of the Right to Disconnect campaign. In response to Scottish Government's Programme for Government we write Rising to the Challenge: a Just Transition and Fair Work and we are also delighted to welcome five new members to the Convention in Renewed Fair Work Convention to meet key challenges ahead.

Scottish Government launch its Consultation on Scotland becoming a Fair Work Nation and we have Guest Blogs from IPPR Scotland and South of Scotland Enterprise and CIPD Scotland.

FAIR WORK AND THE RIGHT TO DISCONNECT

For many, homeworking has also increased work pressures or working hours and has made it increasingly difficult to disconnect from work.

The Fair Work Convention urges employers to address issues of unhealthy working habits that lead to a long hours culture.

Read more here

RISING TO THE CHALLENGE: A JUST TRANSITION AND FAIR WORK

Rising to the Challenge: A Just Transition and Fair Work reflects on the scale of the environmental challenges we face.

Transiting to a net zero economy means changing fundamentally the type of economy that exists in Scotland, and a just transition is only truly 'just' if it is rooted in fair work principles.

Read the full article here

RENEWED FAIR WORK CONVENTION TO MEET KEY CHALLENGES AHEAD

The Fair Work Convention has welcomed five new members bringing a range of skills and experience to meet key challenges ahead. Our new members come from a variety backgrounds across the public, private, voluntary sectors and Scotland's trade unions, bringing with them an unparalleled collective understanding of Scotland's workplaces and labour market and a commitment to fair work and high quality, innovative work practice. Read more here

We have also started a 'New Members Bog Series'; hear Chris Westcott and Aileen McLeod thoughts on fair work and joining the Convention.

SCOTTISH GOVERNMENT FAIR WORK NATION CONSULTATION

For Information - The Scottish Government have this week launched its public consultation on Scotland becoming a Fair Work Nation by 2025.

The Consultation is now open and will be live until 23 December Find the link here

GUEST BLOGS

Securing a fair work recovery for Scotland - Rachel Statham, IPPR Scotland

South of Scotland Enterprise Fair Work Internship - Alexandra McDowall

Coming together to champion fair work for all - Lee Ann Panglea - CIPD Scotland

LIKE AND SHARE

If you like what you see here and want to find out more about the Fair Work Convention you can contact us directly and join our mailing list:

- email: fairworkconvention@gov.scot
- twitter @fairworkscot
- Facebook: Fair Work Convention Scotland
- LinkedIn : Fair Work Convention

Please share this newsletter and help put Fair Work and the heart of Scotland's workplace and economy

