

Alan Thornburrow, Scotland Director – Business in the Community

Alan Thornburrow is the Scotland Director for Business in the Community \(BITC\), The Prince's Responsible Business Network. Alan delivers BITC's strategy in Scotland, working across the public, private and third sectors.

Alan is particularly passionate about the Just Transition and Fair Work agenda and represents BITC widely on these issues in Scotland. Prior to BITC Alan was CEO of a trade body for the investment industry. He leads BITC's relationship with HRHs Sustainable Markets Initiative and The Prince's Foundation. Alan is a member of the Scottish Forum on Natural Capital steering group and sits on a range of taskforces related to the responsible business agenda in Scotland.